

Biography

- Graduated from Hokkaido Otaru Choryo High School in 1978.
- Graduated from the School of Medicine, Keio University in 1986.
- Joined the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine, Keio University School of Medicine in 1986.
- From 1991, engaged in clinical work at the Keio Tsukigase Rehabilitation Center and Keio University Hospital.
- Studied abroad at the University of Gothenburg, Sweden in 1996, conducting research on muscle pathology and muscle stiffness.
- Appointed Chief Physician of the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine at Murayama National Hospital in 1998.
- Appointed Chief Physician of the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine at the National Center for Child Health and Development in 2003.
- Appointed Associate Professor of Rehabilitation Medicine at Kyorin University School of Medicine in 2009.
- Appointed Professor of the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine at Saitama Medical University International Medical Center in 2013.
- Appointed Director of the International Medical Support Center at Saitama Medical University International Medical Center in 2018.

Academic Society Memberships

- Councilor, Board-Certified Specialist, Certified Clinical Rehabilitation Physician, and Certified Instructor of the Japanese Association of Rehabilitation Medicine.
- Chairperson of the Cerebral Palsy Rehabilitation Guideline Committee of the Japanese Association of Rehabilitation Medicine.
- Board Member of the Japanese Society of Physical Therapy Science.
- Board Member of the Society of Advanced Rehabilitation Medicine.
- Chairperson of the Insurance Committee of the Japanese Society for Spine Injury.

Awards

- Recipient of the Best Teacher Award and Best Effort Award in the 4th-Year Student Category at Saitama Medical University in 2016.